OVERVIEW

Dallas encompasses half of the Dallas–Fort Worth Metroplex and is the third-largest city in Texas and the ninth-largest city in the United States. The city serves as the primary economic hub of the Dallas–Fort Worth–Arlington metropolitan area, one of the largest and fastest-growing regions in the country. The Metroplex is home to one of the highest concentrations of corporate headquarters in the United States and ranks among the top markets for Fortune 500 company headquarters. The region also benefits from strong submarket occupancy fundamentals, a diverse employment base, and a robust retail landscape with one of the highest concentrations of shopping centers per capita in the nation. With a population exceeding 8 million residents, the Dallas–Fort Worth Metroplex has consistently ranked among the fastest-growing metropolitan areas in the United States over the past decade.

The Dallas–Fort Worth metropolitan economy is one of the largest in the nation, supported by a highly diversified base of industries including finance, technology, logistics, healthcare, and energy. The region's gross metropolitan product exceeds $700 billion, placing it among the top economic centers in North America. Dallas–Fort Worth is also one of the nation's largest employment centers, with more than four million non-farm jobs and sustained annual job growth that consistently outpaces national averages. The region is home to more than twenty Fortune 500 company headquarters and thousands of corporate offices, reinforcing its reputation as a premier destination for corporate relocation and expansion.

Dallas continues to attract entrepreneurs, corporations, and institutional investment due to its pro-business regulatory environment, favorable tax structure, and strategic central location. Local leadership has prioritized economic development initiatives that support business formation, job creation, and access to capital. These factors, combined with the region's population growth and strong economic fundamentals, position Dallas as one of the most dynamic and resilient metropolitan economies in the United States.

Information About Brokerage Services

Texas law requires all real estate license holders to give the following information about brokerage services to prospective buyers, tenants, sellers and landlords.

TYPES OF REAL ESTATE LICENSE HOLDERS:

- A BROKER is responsible for all brokerage activities, including acts performed by sales agents sponsored by the broker.
- A SALES AGENT must be sponsored by a broker and works with clients on behalf of the broker.

A BROKER'S MINIMUM DUTIES REQUIRED BY LAW (A client is the person or party that the broker represents):

- Put the interests of the client above all others, including the broker's own interests;
- Inform the client of any material information about the property or transaction received by the broker;
- Answer the client's questions and present any offer to or counter-offer from the client; and
- Treat all parties to a real estate transaction honestly and fairly.

A LICENSE HOLDER CAN REPRESENT A PARTY IN A REAL ESTATE TRANSACTION:

AS AGENT FOR OWNER (SELLER/LANDLORD): The broker becomes the property owner's agent through an agreement with the owner, usually in a written listing to sell or property management agreement. An owner's agent must perform the broker's minimum duties above and must inform the owner of any material information about the property or transaction known by the agent, including information disclosed to the agent or subagent by the buyer or buyer's agent.

AS AGENT FOR BUYER/TENANT: The broker becomes the buyer/tenant's agent by agreeing to represent the buyer, usually through a written representation agreement. A buyer's agent must perform the broker's minimum duties above and must inform the buyer of any material information about the property or transaction known by the agent, including information disclosed to the agent by th e seller or seller's agent.

AS AGENT FOR BOTH - INTERMEDIARY: To act as an intermediary between the parties the broker must first obtain the written agreement of each party to the transaction. The written agreement must state who will pay the broker and, in conspicuous bold or underlined print, set forth the broker's obligations as an intermediary. A broker who acts as an intermediary:

- Must treat all parties to the transaction impartially and fairly;
- May, with the parties' written consent, appoint a different license holder associated with the broker to each party (owner and
- buyer) to communicate with, provide opinions and advice to, and carry out the instructions of each party to the transaction.
- Must not, unless specifically authorized in writing to do so by the party, disclose:
  - that the owner will accept a price less than the written asking price;
  - that the buyer/tenant will pay a price greater than the price submitted in a written offer; and
  - any confidential information or any other information that a party specifically instructs the broker in writing not to disclose, unless required to do so by law.

AS SUBAGENT: A license holder acts as a subagent when aiding a buyer in a transaction without an agreement to represent the buyer. A subagent can assist the buyer but does not represent the buyer and must place the interests of the owner first.

TO AVOID DISPUTES, ALL AGREEMENTS BETWEEN YOU AND A BROKER SHOULD BE IN WRITING AND CLEARLY ESTABLISH:

- The broker's duties and responsibilities to you, and your obligations under the representation agreement.
- Who will pay the broker for services provided to you, when payment will be made and how the payment will be calculated.

LICENSE HOLDER CONTACT INFORMATION: This notice is being provided for information purposes. It does not create an obligation for you to use the broker's services. Please acknowledge receipt of this notice below and retain a copy for your records.
