PROPERTY DESCRIPTION

314 South Main is a 9,007-square-foot, multi-tenant retail center located in Fort Worth, Texas. 314 South Main is currently 100 percent occupied, and all leases are triple-net. The center is a complementary mix of restaurant and bar establishments, consisting of Atlas Bar, Chill Coffee & Wine Bar, and Buena Vida Taqueria. All leases include annual rent escalations and renewal options after the initial term. The original building, constructed in 1970, has been completely renovated including all new storefronts, a dumpster enclosure, a grease trap, new patio, exterior painting, new canopies, and a painted mural. The building is situated on 0.28 acres with newly updated landscaping and city-owned street parking.

LOCATION DESCRIPTION

The subject property is located a half mile southwest of the intersection of Interstate 30 and Interstate 35 West on South Main Street. Traffic counts on Interstate 30 are approximately 123,246 vehicles per day and 171,365 vehicles per day on Interstate 35 West. 314 South Main is located within the Near Southside District, just south of downtown Fort Worth. Near Southside is known for its proximity to Fort Worth's world class Medical District, home to Tarrant County's major hospitals and dozens of independent medical clinics, which provide tremendous economic impact to the city and accounts for 39,000 jobs.

The property is also in close proximity to Sundance Square, the Fort Worth Convention Center, the Cultural District, Fort Worth Stockyards, the Medical District, Texas Christian University, and many other popular destinations. With a dense population of more than 308,494 residents within a five-mile radius, the property is well positioned to serve as a destination for shopping, dining and entertainment for the surrounding neighborhoods.

Fort Worth is the fifth-largest city in Texas and the 12th-largest city in the United States, known for Texas hospitality and a dozen remarkable districts full of culture. The city ranks as one of the state's top tourist destinations, welcoming 9.4 million visitors annually. Fort Worth is home to many multinational corporations, including Bell Helicopter, Lockheed Martin, American Airlines, and many more.

Information About Brokerage Services

2-10-2025

Texas law requires all real estate license holders to give the following information about brokerage services to prospective buyers, tenants, sellers and landlords.

TYPES OF REAL ESTATE LICENSE HOLDERS:

- A BROKER is responsible for all brokerage activities, including acts performed by sales agents sponsored by the broker.
- A SALES AGENT must be sponsored by a broker and works with clients on behalf of the broker.

A BROKER'S MINIMUM DUTIES REQUIRED BY LAW (A client is the person or party that the broker represents):

- Put the interests of the client above all others, including the broker's own interests;
- Inform the client of any material information about the property or transaction received by the broker;
- Answer the client's questions and present any offer to or counter-offer from the client; and
- Treat all parties to a real estate transaction honestly and fairly.

A LICENSE HOLDER CAN REPRESENT A PARTY IN A REAL ESTATE TRANSACTION:

AS AGENT FOR OWNER (SELLER/LANDLORD): The broker becomes the property owner's agent through an agreement with the owner, usually in a written listing to sell or property management agreement. An owner's agent must perform the broker's minimum duties above and must inform the owner of any material information about the property or transaction known by the agent, including information disclosed to the agent or subagent by the buyer or buyer's agent. An owner's agent fees are not set by law and are fully negotiable.

AS AGENT FOR BUYER/TENANT: The broker becomes the buyer/tenant's agent by agreeing to represent the buyer, usually through a written representation agreement. A buyer's agent must perform the broker's minimum duties above and must inform the buyer of any material information about the property or transaction known by the agent, including information disclosed to the agent by the seller or seller's agent. A buyer/tenant's agent fees are not set by law and are fully negotiable.

AS AGENT FOR BOTH - INTERMEDIARY: To act as an intermediary between the parties the broker must first obtain the written agreement of each party to the transaction. The written agreement must state who will pay the broker and, in conspicuous bold or underlined print, set forth the broker's obligations as an intermediary. A broker who acts as an intermediary:

- Must treat all parties to the transaction impartially and fairly;
- May, with the parties' written consent, appoint a different license holder associated with the broker to each party (owner and buyer) to communicate with, provide opinions and advice to, and carry out the instructions of each party to the transaction.
- Must not, unless specifically authorized in writing to do so by the party, disclose:
 - that the owner will accept a price less than the written asking price;
 - that the buyer/tenant will pay a price greater than the price submitted in a written offer; and
 - any confidential information or any other information that a party specifically instructs the broker in writing not to disclose, unless required to do so by law.

AS SUBAGENT: A license holder acts as a subagent when aiding a buyer in a transaction without an agreement to represent the buyer. A subagent can assist the buyer but does not represent the buyer and must place the interests of the owner first.

TO AVOID DISPUTES, ALL AGREEMENTS BETWEEN YOU AND A BROKER SHOULD BE IN WRITING AND CLEARLY ESTABLISH:

- The broker's duties and responsibilities to you, and your obligations under the representation agreement.
- Who will pay the broker for services provided to you, when payment will be made and how the payment will be calculated.

LICENSE HOLDER CONTACT INFORMATION: This notice is being provided for information purposes. It does not create an obligation for you to use the broker's services. Please acknowledge receipt of this notice below and retain a copy for your records.
