PREMIER TELECOM CORRIDOR LOCATION

Located within Richardson's nationally recognized Telecom Corridor, home to more than 25 million square feet of office space, approximately 130,000 employees, and many of North Texas' largest technology, healthcare, financial, and defense employers.

IRREPLACEABLE INFILL REAL ESTATE

Located within one of DFW's most established retail corridors where limited available land, mature surrounding development, and strong barriers to entry support long-term occupancy, rental growth, and asset appreciation.

100% LEASED WITH PERSONAL GUARANTEES

Fully leased to Kolache Factory and MF Creative Designs, with both leases backed by personal guarantees. The diversified tenancy provides stable cash flow from complementary food service and neighborhood service use.

PROPERTY OVERVIEW

Positioned along North Central Expressway, the property benefits from outstanding freeway visibility, multiple points of ingress and egress, and enhanced exposure through four prominent pylon signs serving the Campbell Way Center Portfolio. As one of five contiguous offerings within the portfolio, investors have the flexibility to acquire this asset independently or assemble multiple adjacent properties into a larger institutional-quality retail investment.

The property also benefits from immediate access to US-75, President George Bush Turnpike, and I-635, providing outstanding regional connectivity throughout the Dallas-Fort Worth Metroplex.

The portfolio is surrounded by one of Richardson's most established restaurant and lifestyle destinations and is within walking distance of Canyon Creek Shopping Center and Richardson Plaza, featuring an impressive collection of destination retailers and restaurants including La La Land Coffee, CAVA, Torchy's Tacos, Velvet Taco, Chick-fil-A, First Watch, Snappy Salads, Freebirds, Mint Fusion, Great Outdoors, Panera Bread, Starbucks, and numerous additional dining concepts that drive traffic throughout the day and evening. Information About Brokerage Services

11-03-2025

Texas law requires all real estate license holders to give the following information about brokerage services to prospective buyers, tenants, sellers and landlords.

TYPES OF REAL ESTATE LICENSE HOLDERS:

● A BROKER is responsible for all brokerage activities, including acts performed by sales agents sponsored by the broker.

● A SALES AGENT must be sponsored by a broker and works with clients on behalf of the broker.

A BROKER'S MINIMUM DUTIES REQUIRED BY LAW (A client is the person or party that the broker represents):

- Put the interests of the client above all others, including the broker's own interests;
- Inform the client of any material information about the property or transaction received by the broker;
- Answer the client's questions and present any offer to or counter-offer from the client; and
- Treat all parties to a real estate transaction honestly and fairly.

WRITTEN AGREEMENTS ARE REQUIRED IN CERTAIN SITUATIONS: A license holder who performs brokerage activity for a prospective buyer of residential property must enter into a written agreement with the buyer before showing any residential property to the buyer or if no residential property will be shown, before presenting an offer on behalf of the buyer. This written agreement must contain specific information required by Texas law. For more information on these requirements, see section 1101.563 of the Texas Occupations Code, Even if a written agreement is not required, to avoid disputes, all agreements between you and a broker should be in writing and clearly establish: (i) the broker's duties and responsibilities to you and your obligations under the agreement; and (ii) the amount or rate of compensation the broker will receive and how this amount is determined.

A LICENSE HOLDER CAN REPRESENT A PARTY IN A REAL ESTATE TRANSACTION:

AS AGENT FOR OWNER (SELLER/LANDLORD): The broker becomes the property owner's agent through an agreement with the owner, usually in a written listing to sell or property management agreement. An owner's agent must perform the broker's minimum duties above and must inform the owner of any material information about the property or transaction known by the agent, including information disclosed to the agent or subagent by the buyer or buyer's agent. An owner's agent fees are not set by law and are fully negotiable.

AS AGENT FOR BUYER/TENANT: The broker becomes the buyer/tenant's agent by agreeing to represent the buyer, usually through a written representation agreement. A buyer's agent must perform the broker's minimum duties above and must inform the buyer of any material information about the property or transaction known by the agent, including information disclosed to the agent by the seller or seller's agent. A buyer/tenant's agent fees are not set by law and are fully negotiable.

AS AGENT FOR BOTH - INTERMEDIARY: To act as an intermediary between the parties the broker must first obtain the written agreement of each party to the transaction. The written agreement must state who will pay the broker and, in conspicuous bold or underlined print, set forth the broker's obligations as an intermediary. A broker who acts as an intermediary:

- Must treat all parties to the transaction impartially and fairly;
- May, with the parties' written consent, appoint a different license holder associated with the broker to each party (owner and buyer) to communicate with, provide opinions and advice to, and carry out the instructions of each party to the transaction.
- Must not, unless specifically authorized in writing to do so by the party, disclose:
 - that the owner will accept a price less than the written asking price;
 - that the buyer/tenant will pay a price greater than the price submitted in a written offer; and
 - any confidential information or any other information that a party specifically instructs the broker in writing not to disclose, unless required to do so by law.

A LICENSE HOLDER CAN SHOW PROPERTY TO A BUYER/TENANT WITHOUT REPRESENTING THE BUYER/TENANT IF:

- The broker has not agreed with the buyer/tenant, either orally or in writing, to represent the buyer/tenant;
- The broker is not otherwise acting as the buyer/tenant's agent at the time of showing the property;
- The broker does not provide the buyer/tenant options or advise regarding the property or real estate transactions generally; and
- The broker does not perform any other act of real estate brokerage for the buyer/tenant.
