INVESTMENT EXPERTISE

Philip Levy joined Marcus & Millichap in 2004, starting as an agent in the company's Dallas office. Through his career in the commercial real estate industry, he grew a keen interest in the retail market, learning and perfecting his approach in matching retail and net lease properties with investors. Today, Philip has earned the title of Executive Managing Director, specializing exclusively in the sale of multi-tenant retail investment properties.

He has spent his entire 22-year career in the real estate business at Marcus & Millichap selling shopping centers. In that time, he continually proves his authority as one of the most well-known entities in multi-tenant retail in Texas, completing more than 700 transactions totaling more than $3 billion. His unparalleled knowledge of Texas' market trends and extensive expertise in leveraging the powerful Marcus & Millichap platform empowers his clients to capitalize on opportunities and trust in his commitment to meeting and understanding their individual needs.

With a considerable background working in telecommunications at AT&T and Lucent Technologies, Philip used this as a catalyst to broaden his connections to start selling complex point-to-multipoint wireless networks to large carriers in the United States, Mexico, Brazil, Venezuela, New Zealand, and Australia, which then led to his extremely successful career in real estate. His ability to change and evolve in different situations keeps him diligently aware of anything that's going on around him, helping his clients consistently make informed decisions based on market knowledge and experience, which allows him to cultivate, maintain and perpetuate relationships.

After growing up in Rockport, Texas and graduating from Stephen F. Austin State University, Philip has proven that his dedication extends far beyond his career. Not only does he continually support his alma mater, but he also supports and contributes to a myriad of nonprofit organizations including The Mayo Clinic, American Diabetes Association, Thurgood Marshall College Fund, Ursuline Academy of Dallas, and Chabad.

His passion for positively impacting his community goes unmatched, and it is this mindset that spills into his own life when he is not working. Philip strives to spend as much time as he can with his daughter, Lilah. Philip and Lilah enjoy playing tennis, traveling, and most of all, wake surfing. It's clear that what Philip loves most about his career and his life are the people in it—a quality that clearly strengthens and solidifies his rank as one of the top-producing Marcus & Millichap agents in Texas and the nation.

PHILIP LEVY

Philip Levy:
Navigating and thriving through financial crises

In a 20-year career defined by resilience, adaptability and a relentless focus on relationships, Philip Levy has weathered some of the most challenging periods in commercial real estate. As Executive Managing Director at Marcus & Millichap, specializing in the sale of multi-tenant retail properties, Levy's success is a testament to his ability to emerge stronger from economic turbulence.

Levy's journey in commercial real estate began in 2004 and in the years since, he has closed more than 1,000 transactions totaling more than $4 billion in sales volume. His remarkable career is marked by his dedication to understanding market trends and his commitment to building lasting relationships with clients.

"What I value most in my career and life are the people in it," Levy shared. "Building and maintaining strong relationships with clients is incredibly fulfilling for me."

However, the road to becoming one of Texas' most successful retail brokers has not been without its challenges. Levy's journey has been marked by perseverance, particularly during two of the most challenging periods in recent history: the Great Recession and the COVID-19 pandemic.

The economic downturn of 2008 was especially brutal for the multi-tenant retail sector.

"During the Great Recession, liquidity in multi-tenant retail basically evaporated to the point where there was no transaction velocity," Levy explained. "It forced me to ask myself some very specific questions about my evolution in commercial real estate. I had to think long and hard about my answers because I knew it would help shape who I am, both in business and personally, and it has to this day."

The COVID-19 pandemic presented an entirely different set of obstacles.

"The lockdowns had a substantial impact on retail," Levy said. "From March to June of 2020, transaction velocity evaporated. However, it forced everyone to get creative, and opportunity followed, ultimately resulting in our team's best production year ever, up to that date."

Levy credits much of his success to the strong support provided by Marcus & Millichap.

"The company has provided me with the best foundation to shape my professional growth and continues to provide an abundance of unparalleled resources," he said.

Levy also attributes his work ethic and values to his upbringing.

"My parents have been instrumental in my success, instilling in me to always seek the truth and to never quit," he said.

Throughout his career, Levy has leveraged the resources and platform of Marcus & Millichap to help his clients capitalize on opportunities in the ever-changing retail market. His ability to guide clients through complex transactions, combined with his extensive market knowledge, has earned him national recognition. He has been named the No. 1 multi-tenant retail agent in the U.S. multiple times and consistently ranks among the top producers at Marcus & Millichap.

"There has never been a day that I've felt like I was just 'at my job,'" Levy said. "I'm passionate about what I do and the people I work with. That passion drives me every day."

Outside of work, Levy prioritizes quality time with his loved ones.

"I enjoy traveling and wake surfing with my daughter, Lilah, and fiancé, Hillary," he said.

Levy's commitment to excellence extends beyond his career. He is actively involved in supporting nonprofit organizations, including the Mayo Clinic, American Diabetes Association, and Thurgood Marshall College Fund, among others. His dedication to giving back reflects his belief in the importance of community and making a positive impact.

Information About Brokerage Services

11-03-2025

Texas law requires all real estate license holders to give the following information about brokerage services to prospective buyers, tenants, sellers and landlords.

TYPES OF REAL ESTATE LICENSE HOLDERS:

● A BROKER is responsible for all brokerage activities, including acts performed by sales agents sponsored by the broker.

● A SALES AGENT must be sponsored by a broker and works with clients on behalf of the broker.

A BROKER'S MINIMUM DUTIES REQUIRED BY LAW (A client is the person or party that the broker represents):

- Put the interests of the client above all others, including the broker's own interests;
- Inform the client of any material information about the property or transaction received by the broker;
- Answer the client's questions and present any offer to or counter-offer from the client; and
- Treat all parties to a real estate transaction honestly and fairly.

WRITTEN AGREEMENTS ARE REQUIRED IN CERTAIN SITUATIONS: A license holder who performs brokerage activity for a prospective buyer of residential property must enter into a written agreement with the buyer before showing any residential property to the buyer or if no residential property will be shown, before presenting an offer on behalf of the buyer. This written agreement must contain specific information required by Texas law. For more information on these requirements, see section 1101.563 of the Texas Occupations Code. Even if a written agreement is not required, to avoid disputes, all agreements between you and a broker should be in writing and clearly establish: (i) the broker's duties and responsibilities to you and your obligations under the agreement; and (ii) the amount or rate of compensation the broker will receive and how this amount is determined.

A LICENSE HOLDER CAN REPRESENT A PARTY IN A REAL ESTATE TRANSACTION:

AS AGENT FOR OWNER (SELLER/LANDLORD): The broker becomes the property owner's agent through an agreement with the owner, usually in a written listing to sell or property management agreement. An owner's agent must perform the broker's minimum duties above and must inform the owner of any material information about the property or transaction known by the agent, including information disclosed to the agent or subagent by the buyer or buyer's agent. An owner's agent fees are not set by law and are fully negotiable.

AS AGENT FOR BUYER/TENANT: The broker becomes the buyer/tenant's agent by agreeing to represent the buyer, usually through a written representation agreement. A buyer's agent must perform the broker's minimum duties above and must inform the buyer of any material information about the property or transaction known by the agent, including information disclosed to the agent by the seller or seller's agent. A buyer/tenant's agent fees are not set by law and are fully negotiable.

AS AGENT FOR BOTH - INTERMEDIARY: To act as an intermediary between the parties the broker must first obtain the written agreement of each party to the transaction. The written agreement must state who will pay the broker and, in conspicuous bold or underlined print, set forth the broker's obligations as an intermediary. A broker who acts as an intermediary:

- Must treat all parties to the transaction impartially and fairly;
- May, with the parties' written consent, appoint a different license holder associated with the broker to each party (owner and buyer) to communicate with, provide opinions and advice to, and carry out the instructions of each party to the transaction.
- Must not, unless specifically authorized in writing to do so by the party, disclose:
 - that the owner will accept a price less than the written asking price;
 - that the buyer/tenant will pay a price greater than the price submitted in a written offer; and
 - any confidential information or any other information that a party specifically instructs the broker in writing not to disclose, unless required to do so by law.

A LICENSE HOLDER CAN SHOW PROPERTY TO A BUYER/TENANT WITHOUT REPRESENTING THE BUYER/TENANT IF:

- The broker has not agreed with the buyer/tenant, either orally or in writing, to represent the buyer/tenant;
- The broker is not otherwise acting as the buyer/tenant's agent at the time of showing the property;
- The broker does not provide the buyer/tenant options or advise regarding the property or real estate transactions generally; and
- The broker does not perform any other act of real estate brokerage for the buyer/tenant.

Before showing a residential property to an unrepresented prospective buyer, a license holder must enter into a written agreement contains the information required by section 1101.563 of the Texas Occupations Code. The agreement may not be exclusive and must be limited to no more than 14 days.
