PROPERTY OVERVIEW

Marcus & Millichap is pleased to present the Victory Shops at Basswood III, located at 7032 North Blue Mound Road in Fort Worth, Texas. This multi-tenant retail asset offers reliable cash flow anchored by a diverse mix of tenants. The property is situated in the Victory Shops at Basswood, a thriving 26-acre development that provides excellent visibility and access from North Blue Mound Road, a major thoroughfare.

With a prime location near Saginaw High School and BNSF Railway's corporate office, the asset benefits from robust local demographics and traffic. Supported by strong traffic counts, proximity to major employment nodes, and sustained residential growth, the property is well positioned to benefit from continued expansion throughout North Fort Worth.

Investment Overview

100% OCCUPIED NEIGHBORHOOD RETAIL CENTER WITH BELOW MARKET RENTS

Stabilized asset with a fully leased tenant roster on triple-net terms, providing immediate in-place cash flow. Current average rents are significantly below market, offering mark-to-market upside upon future expirations.

NEW (2022) CONSTRUCTION WITH DUAL DRIVE-THROUGHS

This 15,849-square-foot center was completed in 2022, offering modern construction and minimal deferred maintenance. Both end-cap suites are equipped with drive-through windows, a key feature for high-volume tenants.

STRATEGIC HIGH-TRAFFIC FORT WORTH LOCATION

Positioned near the signalized intersection of Blue Mound Road and Basswood Boulevard (48,000 VPD cumulatively), the property benefits from exceptional visibility and accessibility. Location is less than 1.5 miles from I-35W (126,697 VPD).

POWERFUL DAILY TRAFFIC DRIVERS

The center benefits from a unique synergy of demand drivers including the adjacent Saginaw High School (2,200 students), a shadow-anchoring Kroger Marketplace, and the nearby BNSF Railway HQ (4,500+ employees).

AFFLUENT & HIGH-GROWTH DEMOGRAPHICS

North Fort Worth continues to experience significant residential and employment growth tied to expansion throughout the Alliance corridor, supporting long-term appreciation and tenant demand for neighborhood retail assets.

PROPERTY OVERVIEW

PROPERTY DESCRIPTION

Victory Shops at Basswood III is a 15,849-square-foot, multi-tenant retail center situated on a 2.13-acre parcel in the rapidly growing Saginaw submarket of Fort Worth, Texas. Completed in 2022, the property features seven suites with modern architectural design, anchored by Safe Splash Swim School which occupies over 30 percent of the gross leasable area. The asset offers distinct physical advantages, including drive-through windows on both end-cap suites to accommodate high-throughput tenants like Jeremiah's Italian Ice and Jamba Juice/Auntie Anne's. Positioned within the larger 26-acre Victory Shops at Basswood development, the site benefits from fee simple ownership and contemporary construction standards.

LOCATION DESCRIPTION

The subject property is strategically located near the signalized intersection of North Blue Mound Road (FM 156) and Basswood Boulevard, serving as a strong commercial hub for North Fort Worth. The center benefits from exceptional visibility and access, with combined daily traffic counts exceeding 48,000 vehicles. The property is situated directly across from major demand generators, including Saginaw High School with approximately 2,200 students, a Kroger Marketplace-anchored shopping center, and numerous national quick-service retailers, generating consistent daily needs traffic. Additionally, the site is less than two miles from the BNSF Railway Corporate Office, a major employment hub housing over 4,500 corporate professionals.

The surrounding trade area boasts a high-growth, affluent demographic with approximately 259,437 residents within a five-mile radius and average household incomes over $101,000. The submarket is expanding rapidly, fueled by the recent widening of FM 156 and ongoing residential development within the Eagle Mountain-Saginaw ISD. This strong population density, alongside national retailers and medical providers nearby, reinforces the property's prime position in a dynamic retail corridor resilient to market fluctuations.

Major Employers

The Fort Worth employment landscape is characterized by a synergistic mix of recession-resilient industries, providing a stable and diverse labor pool that underpins the investment thesis for the submarket. The area is anchored by a formidable aerospace and defense sector, including major operations for the United States Air Force at Plant 4, the NRC NAS JRB Fort Worth, and Bell, which ensures long-term economic stability through significant government and private investment. This is complemented by the presence of major corporate headquarters like American Airlines, which solidifies the region's status as a critical business hub. Furthermore, the market's economic resilience is enhanced by a robust healthcare sector, with major employers such as Cook Children's Medical Center and Texas Health Harris Methodist Hospital, alongside a strong industrial base represented by General Motors. This diverse array of employment anchors creates a dynamic and enduring economic environment, driving sustained demand and supporting long-term value.

Information About Brokerage Services

11-03-2025

Texas law requires all real estate license holders to give the following information about brokerage services to prospective buyers, tenants, sellers and landlords.

TYPES OF REAL ESTATE LICENSE HOLDERS:

● A BROKER is responsible for all brokerage activities, including acts performed by sales agents sponsored by the broker.

● A SALES AGENT must be sponsored by a broker and works with clients on behalf of the broker.

A BROKER'S MINIMUM DUTIES REQUIRED BY LAW (A client is the person or party that the broker represents):

- Put the interests of the client above all others, including the broker's own interests;
- Inform the client of any material information about the property or transaction received by the broker;
- Answer the client's questions and present any offer to or counter-offer from the client; and
- Treat all parties to a real estate transaction honestly and fairly.

WRITTEN AGREEMENTS ARE REQUIRED IN CERTAIN SITUATIONS: A license holder who performs brokerage activity for a prospective buyer of residential property must enter into a written agreement with the buyer before showing any residential property to the buyer or if no residential property will be shown, before presenting an offer on behalf of the buyer. This written agreement must contain specific information required by Texas law. For more information on these requirements, see section 1101.563 of the Texas Occupations Code, Even if a written agreement is not required, to avoid disputes, all agreements between you and a broker should be in writing and clearly establish: (i) the broker's duties and responsibilities to you and your obligations under the agreement; and (ii) the amount or rate of compensation the broker will receive and how this amount is determined.

A LICENSE HOLDER CAN REPRESENT A PARTY IN A REAL ESTATE TRANSACTION:

AS AGENT FOR OWNER (SELLER/LANDLORD): The broker becomes the property owner's agent through an agreement with the owner, usually in a written listing to sell or property management agreement. An owner's agent must perform the broker's minimum duties above and must inform the owner of any material information about the property or transaction known by the agent, including information disclosed to the agent or subagent by the buyer or buyer's agent. An owner's agent fees are not set by law and are fully negotiable.

AS AGENT FOR BUYER/TENANT: The broker becomes the buyer/tenant's agent by agreeing to represent the buyer, usually through a written representation agreement. A buyer's agent must perform the broker's minimum duties above and must inform the buyer of any material information about the property or transaction known by the agent, including information disclosed to the agent by the seller or seller's agent. A buyer/tenant's agent fees are not set by law and are fully negotiable.

AS AGENT FOR BOTH - INTERMEDIARY: To act as an intermediary between the parties the broker must first obtain the written agreement of each party to the transaction. The written agreement must state who will pay the broker and, in conspicuous bold or underlined print, set forth the broker's obligations as an intermediary. A broker who acts as an intermediary:

- Must treat all parties to the transaction impartially and fairly;
- May, with the parties' written consent, appoint a different license holder associated with the broker to each party (owner and buyer) to communicate with, provide opinions and advice to, and carry out the instructions of each party to the transaction.
- Must not, unless specifically authorized in writing to do so by the party, disclose:
 - that the owner will accept a price less than the written asking price;
 - that the buyer/tenant will pay a price greater than the price submitted in a written offer; and
 - any confidential information or any other information that a party specifically instructs the broker in writing not to disclose, unless required to do so by law.

A LICENSE HOLDER CAN SHOW PROPERTY TO A BUYER/TENANT WITHOUT REPRESENTING THE BUYER/TENANT IF:

- The broker has not agreed with the buyer/tenant, either orally or in writing, to represent the buyer/tenant;
- The broker is not otherwise acting as the buyer/tenant's agent at the time of showing the property;
- The broker does not provide the buyer/tenant options or advise regarding the property or real estate transactions generally; and
- The broker does not perform any other act of real estate brokerage for the buyer/tenant.

Before showing a residential property to an unrepresented prospective buyer, a license holder must enter into a written agreement contains the information required by section 1101.563 of the Texas Occupations Code. The agreement may not be exclusive and must be limited to no more than 14 days.

LICENSE HOLDER CONTACT INFORMATION: This notice is being provided for information purposes. It does not create an obligation for you to use the broker's services. Please acknowledge receipt of this notice below and retain a copy for your records.
